

DNR Program

---

Indiana Department of Natural Resources
Falls of the Ohio State Park
201 West Riverside Drive
Clarksville, IN 47129

What: Earth Day Celebration
When: Saturday, May 8 from 10 to 4
Where: Falls of the Ohio State Park & Interpretive Center
201 W Riverside Drive, Clarksville, Indiana

Sponsored by: Trash Force, Inc, & Kentuckiana AIR Education
Free admission to the Interpretive Center, courtesy Jamey Aebersold

Over 100 exhibitors with activities, displays, entertainment, music and food!

Aebersold's Jazz Quartet performing at 1:30

Jungle John's "Silly Safari" live animal show, from noon to 4:00

His Earth friendly message is presented in delightful interactions with the audience and his furry – and not so furry – friends.

Sign up to Win Bikes from Clarksville Schwinn and KAIRE

Free tree seedlings to the first 200 visitors

Kite flying, face painting, seed planting, and more

Take your picture with Smokey Bear

Enjoy the Junk Genius' Robots, made out of recycled toys

Examine hybrid vehicles close-up

Look at ways to use solar energy and energy efficient lighting

Be creative with driftwood art to take home

Admire local artists' colorful Nature photography & litter sculptures!

Environmental groups share ideas for being good stewards of the Earth, and local businesses celebrate Earth Day with demonstrations of Earth friendly products and activities.

Want to learn more? Call 812-280-9970